

C-130H/AMP

MAINTENANCE INITIAL FAULT FINDING COURSE

Course Code: TC-2211

This course provides critical C130H aircraft systems review and fault finding training for the C130H flight crews, maintenance managers, engineers and technicians. At the end of this course, the participants will be equipped with the relevant aircraft type knowledge and skills in troubleshooting critical system malfunctions and proficiency in performing technical fault finding on the C130H aircraft.

Review Of Critical System Knowledge & Fault Finding Skill on:

- Engine System malfunctions & emergency procedure
- Propeller System malfunctions & emergency procedure
- Electrical Systems malfunctions & emergency procedure
- Hydraulic System malfunctions & emergency procedure
- Pneumatic System malfunctions & emergency procedure
- Fuel System malfunctions & emergency procedure

Pre-requisite

Qualified and experience in C130H aircraft type system operation.

Course Duration

Total of 30 hrs (6 hrs x 5 days)

Course Location

Aviationlearn Training Centre in Singapore

Class Size

Max 4 participants per set.